

FRANCHISE SERVICES, the parent company of Sir Speedy, PIP Printing & Document Services, Signal Graphics, Copies Now, and Multicopy, has restructured its executive management team. Richard Lowe will serve as president and COO of the print management group, while Dan Beck will be executive VP of franchise support and training. John Bowen will serve as the new VP of support. Dan Conger will continue as VP and CFO, while Kelly Kimberlin will be VP of strategic development and David Robidoux will serve as VP of marketing. Christian Lau will serve as VP of information technology and Don Lowe will continue as Franchise Services CEO.
www.franserv.com

“Most customers don’t leave a supplier due to price; most leave because they feel the supplier does not care.”
From Sir Speedy’s
The Original Copy

